The writer tells us about a person ^{who} hid himself in a box to avoid a ^{buying} plane ticket. He tried to be clever to save money but ^{ended} up to pay ^{having} more than ^{for} a normal ticket. This ^{these} kind of activities to avoid paying fare can happen ^{and} in ships, trains, cars as well. I think people should not take risks ^{this} ~~yet~~ to try as it is uncomfortable and even dangerous.

First, hiding in a small place is definitely uncomfortable especially ^{if} a trip takes ^{many} ~~for~~ long hours. People can not move ^{in a box} due limited space and also worried ^{they are} ~~to~~ be caught. Certainly, it is a bad experience even if one is not ~~been~~ caught. Moreover, it is very dangerous for the box ^{might} ~~may~~ do not handled in a careful way or even drop ^{pad} from a high place. One's life can be in danger these cases. For example, there are some ^{people who} reported that ^{then} ~~luggage~~ ^{was} handled rudely. Further, some boxes ^{might} ~~may~~ go to a wrong ^{place} by accident. There are too many risks involved ^{so that} even ~~the~~ extremely poor people should not try this ^{to do} way.
