

past tense
↓
story

Lora

2019-10-08

proof by speaking

This passage is about ~~of~~ a real end of a dream by ~~a~~ bad weather.

The person in this story slept on the roof of his house, which ~~seem~~<sup>ed</sup> very comfortable ~~on~~<sup>in</sup> a hot weather. He ~~is~~<sup>was</sup> poor but this ~~is~~<sup>was</sup>

not a good reason for him to run such ~~kind of~~<sup>a</sup> risks. He bought ~~a~~<sup>which</sup> new bed clearly showed his positive attitudes ~~to~~<sup>set: this kind of risk</sup> enjoy a better life. Actually, he was unaware of dangerous while a high wind actually put his life in a real risk. I believe that people should think carefully and talk to others before they are going to do something unusual. First, it is safer to ask for other's opinions during the planning stage because this will help you think again to shape a clearer image of what to do. Second, through talking with others and thinking, plans ~~would~~ get more feasible. This gives you more confidence to turn your ideas into actions. Third, you may modify your detail ~~actions~~<sup>you can</sup> by carefully listening to experiences of other people ~~by rethinking about~~<sup>people's</sup> your situations,

~~and~~ other ~~stories~~<sup>you</sup> of successes and failures ~~etc~~. After that, ~~one~~<sup>you</sup> will be more efficient and get ~~easier~~<sup>It = (task)</sup> to turn his actions into a reality, and lead to realization of a ~~true dream~~.

a
the an

the

a-goal target
success

LOGA

2019-10-15

This passage is about a man who forgot his key at night and tried to get into his house from the windows. He was caught by a policeman and clearly ~~got~~ ~~bought himself~~ into trouble because the policeman simply regarded him as a burglar. From childhood, we are advised by our teachers and parents to do as the majority <sup>does</sup> ~~did~~. <sup>and</sup> Despite not everyone agrees with this convention, the facts <sup>there</sup> are that ~~those~~ <sup>(while)</sup> minorities are often getting in trouble in our society. ~~They~~ are several advantages to follow the practice<sup>s</sup> of the majority. Firstly, it is more convenience<sup>e</sup> to follow established practices as a good way to mingle with others. For example, the old saying, "Do as Roman<sup>s</sup> do, when you are in Rome" is a vivid illustration of this situation. Secondly, these established habits should have their own ration<sup>ale</sup> ~~proved to be feasible~~ for they give us a good chance to learn <sup>from</sup> the experiences of other people and help us improve ourselves in our daily practices. Moreover, as people around like themselves, it is much easy <sup>ies</sup> to communicate with these <sup>people</sup> ~~who are alike~~ as a part of <sup>us</sup> ~~their~~ <sup>our</sup>

<sup>Our</sup> communities. In a society <sup>of</sup> valuing conformity, if you <sup>do</sup> ~~are~~ not do the same as others, no doubt you will be noticed, continually be watched and easily <sup>got</sup> ~~got~~ into trouble<sup>s</sup>. For example, the algorithm of monitoring systems in security departments is to find someone who behavior<sup>s</sup> <sup>is</sup> differently and those people will persistently be checked in great details and their normal life and work will certainly be affected.

19

past tense
↓
story

Lora

2019-10-08

proof by speaking

U

This passage is about ~~of~~ a real end of a dream by ~~a~~ bad weather.

The person in this story slept on the roof of his house, which

~~seem~~<sup>ed</sup> very comfortable ~~on~~<sup>in</sup> a hot weather. He ~~is~~<sup>was</sup> poor but this ~~is~~<sup>was</sup>

not a good reason for him to run such ~~kind of~~<sup>a</sup> risks. He bought

~~which~~<sup>alt: this kind of risk</sup> a new bed clearly showed his positive attitudes ~~to~~<sup>in</sup> enjoy a better life. Actually, he was unaware of dangerous ~~while~~<sup>toward</sup> a high wind actually put his life in a real risk. I believe that people should think carefully and talk to others before they are going to do something unusual. First, it is safer to ask for other's opinions

during the planning stage because this will help you think again

to shape a clearer image of what to do. Second, through talking

with others and thinking, plans ~~would~~ get more feasible. This gives you more confidence to turn your ideas into actions. Third,

you may modify your details ~~actions~~<sup>you can</sup> by carefully listening to

experiences of other people ~~by rethinking about~~<sup>people's</sup> your situations,

~~and~~ other ~~stories~~<sup>you</sup> of successes and failures etc. After that, ~~one~~<sup>you</sup> will

~~be~~<sup>It = (task)</sup> more efficient and get ~~easier~~ to turn his actions into a reality, and lead to realization of a ~~true dream~~

a
the
an

the

a goal
target
success

Lora

2019-10-28

This passage is about a long-lost bicycle found by policemen.

Lost and found is part of police duties. However, their main tasks are to prevent crimes <sup>and</sup> catch criminals. Nowadays, the relationship between police and <sup>the</sup> general public <sup>has</sup> become a hot topic in the news. <sup>people</sup> Despite some argue <sup>that</sup> the nature of <sup>the</sup> police's job cannot always be friendly to everyone, people still expect policemen to be friendly especially in dealing with small cases such as traffic violations. However, many reports illustrate that policemen are rude and use <sup>excessive</sup> force.

In addition, some reports show <sup>excessive</sup> that their prejudice toward poor and ~~colored~~ <sup>of color</sup> people ~~are~~ § existed in some enforcement. As bad news spread <sup>one</sup> quickly in the digital age, this leaves an awful image of police in people's mind. <sup>As</sup> part of communities, it is important for the police to make most taxpayers happy as <sup>they</sup> <sup>People</sup> <sup>reasons</sup> pay for their expenses <sup>and</sup> salaries. For example, to prevent disturbance of peace has a <sup>the</sup> <sup>board</sup> <sup>broad</sup> meaning, but it can be easily interpreted by ~~a policeman~~ <sup>officers</sup> at his own wills. Thus, training is crucial to ensure every policeman <sup>to mean anything</sup> ~~to act~~ according to laws or regulations in his or her enforcement by applying standard operating procedures. <sup>or their</sup> on issues

offenses

offenses

their some argue

I exist
you exist
he/she/it exists =

Offenses

Because

excessive force.

people of color

Officers

<sup>the</sup> of police in people's mind. ~~As~~ part of communities, it is important for the police to make most taxpayers happy as ~~they~~ <sup>people</sup> pay for their expenses <sup>and police are</sup> <sup>reasons</sup> and salaries. For example, to prevent disturbance of peace has a <sup>the</sup> ~~board~~ <sup>broad</sup> meaning, but it can be easily interpreted by ~~a policeman~~ <sup>officers to mean anything</sup> at his own wills. Thus, training is crucial to ensure every ~~policeman~~ <sup>police officer acts</sup> to act according to laws or regulations in his or her enforcement by applying standard
operating procedures. <sup>or their</sup>