

Larry

2019-11-04

This passage is about a camping experience, and it described a bad experience of a group of boy tourists in their camping. In a sudden rain at night, their tent was filled with water. For those boys, it was an unforgettable day.

Many people enjoy camping because it gives hikers a great freedom in the open air for both pleasure and exercise, and it is <sup>also</sup> ~~as~~ a way to socialize. <sup>Besides,</sup> ~~Camping also~~ helps people to learn skills to live in the wild places. Moreover, camping can often save a lot of money as people usually bring their equipment <sup>to</sup> to prepare themselves for their sleeping and meals. <sup>For instance,</sup> ~~Often~~ people put up their tent as a sleeping place and meals such barbecues are prepared by making an open fire. For campers, ~~camping~~ <sup>are</sup> fire <sup>is</sup> very important activities for their warmth, cooking and <sup>as</sup> ~~a~~ place for social gathering. <sup>(s)</sup> ~~However,~~ <sup>shown</sup> ~~As shows~~ in this story, sometimes ~~a~~ bad weather can spoil a camping. I hope you can also share your stories, good or bad, as a traveler.

[173 words]